Pearson Seeks to Prevent Resignation

OTTAWA (AP) — Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson sought today to prevent his Cabinet's forced resignation with a vote of confidence to offset the defeat of a key tax bill in the House of Commons.

The Conservatives opposed the confidence vote, arguing that the only course open to the minority Liberal government after its defeat Monday was to call a general election. Debate on the government's motion for a vote was expected to continue into next week, a delay which could bring other opposition leaders around to Pearson's view that most Canadians aren't ready for their third general election in less than five years.

Pearson, who cut short a vacation in Jamaica, contended that the 84-82 defeat of the 5 per cent income tax surcharge was accidental and "a hazard of minority government."

The prime minister said such defeats would mean "a lot of elections" if they were regarded as tests of confidence. But he said if he loses the confidence vote, "then of course the government resigns."

The tax bill had been approved on its earlier second reading, and approval on third reading is usually a routine matter. But Monday night some of the Liberal leaders were off campaigning to succeed Pearson, who is retiring in the spring; 46 of the 130 Liberal MPs were absent, and alert opposition members rushed the bill to its final reading and defeat.

With the Liberals divided by the seven-man fight to succeed the 70-year-old prime minister, Conservative leader Robert L. Stanfield apparently sensed prospective gains for his Conservatives.

Stanfield said the defeat on the tax bill was "a matter of fundamental importance" and called on the government to resign.

Buddhist Leader Is Arrested

By BARRY KRAMER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — National police arrested the militant Buddhist leader Thich Tri Quang today a few hours after arresting two other prominent political opponents of the South Vietnamese government.

U.S. Embassy officials said the arrests were a remarkable case of bad timing since they came shortly before a new anti-Communist front, "The People's Congress for National Salvation," announced that it had succeeded in uniting political friends and foes of the government.

Associates and friends of all three arrested men are members of the new congress. There was speculation that they might quit because of the surprise arrests.

In addition to the monk Tri Quang, the police arrested Truong Dinh Dzu, who ran a strong second as a peace candidate in last October's presidential election, and Au Truong Thanh, a former economy minister. Thanh also tried to run for president on a peace platform but his ticket was disqualified by the Constituent Assembly for "pro-Communist and pro-neutrality tendencies." Dzu got around that by keeping his peace platform quiet until after the assembly certified his candidacy.

Informed American sources said further arrests of government opponents were "entirely possible." They could not confirm reports that a small number of intellectuals had also been arrested.

Tri Quang commands a large following throughout South Vietnam. As recently as last September he was able to call thousands of Buddhist monks, nuns and laymen into the streets for protest marches against the government. In 1966 he led "struggle movements" against the government of Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, and virtual anarchy in Hue and Da Nang was put down only after government troops were flown in.

The new anti-Communist front held its first meeting with newsmen today and announced it had united several different groups and personalities to counter the Viet Cong offensive.

The chairman of the standing committee, Sen. Tran Van Don, said although the group has government's backing, it is not a government group. However, Vice President Ky's press aide helped organize the meeting, and soldiers set up the loud-speaker system for the news conference.

Apple Valley Has No Tree

APPLE VALLEY, Calif. (AP) — It's called Apple Valley but there isn't an apple tree in sight.

Cowboy stars Roy Rogers and Dale Evans, residents of the community, will help plant the first of 1,000 apple trees in a ceremony Sunday to begin the project, "Apples for Apple Valley."

"We're tired of hearing there are no apple trees in Apple Valley," a spokesman said Tuesday.

Jeopardized.

Most of those who spoke for the amendment actually opposed it, but said if the state hoped to have a convention, the House would have to approve it.

Opponents said they believed the electorate would be too involved in voting for candidates for various offices and would not be knowledgeable about what the constitution contained.

When a voter is confused and doesn't understand, he generally votes against, said Rep. G. W. "Buddy" Turner Jr. of Pine Bluff.

Rep. Thomas Sparks of Fordyce said that if the House did not concur the convention bill would be dead and "the legislature will be the laughing stock of the state."

"If you put this in the general election . . . you're not going to get the really true consideration of this thing that you get in a special election," said Rep. Chadd Durrett of El Dorado.

In other action Tuesday, the Senate:

— Passed 29-0, a bill allowing all persons in line at the time polls close to vote.

— Passed a House bill 31-0, creating a trust fund to which all receipts for the Social Security fund be credited and which may be invested in bonds or certificates pending payment to the Social Security Administration.

— Passed a House bill 30-5, appropriating $1,070,000 the first year and $2,328,580 the second to the state Administration Department.

— Passed a House bill 25-0, creating a marketing and redistribution section in the state Administration Department's Purchasing Division.

— Passed a House bill 25-3 creating an Administration Department revolving fund.

— Passed a House bill 27-3, authorizing the Administration Department to operate an electronic data processing center for state agencies.

— Passed a House bill 22-8, designating the state Planning Commission to cooperate in administering the national Historical Preservation Act.

— Passed a House bill 24-5, authorizing the Administration Department to establish a central telephone service for state agencies, and allowing each agency to choose whether it wishes to participate.

Kirk Returns to Try to End Strike

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Gov. Claude Kirk returned from California today amid criticism because he was out of state during a teacher walkout that has kept more than a half million pupils out of class.

"I will go into the county as I always do and break the core. That is to say, I will go to Miami," the governor said, Kirk has said the source of the dispute is in the state's bigger cities.

The governor took note of criticism about his six-day absence from the state. "I can handle my job by telephone," Kirk said. "Is it true that I have to be there hourly. Do you think — Passed a House bill 33-0, providing financing for Education Department improvements in the old Highway Department Building.

— Passed a House bill 33-0, putting the question on whether to conduct a constitutional convention on the November ballot.

— Defeated a House bill 17-11, appropriating $45,000 to the Planning Commission for historical preservation programs.

the phones don't work in California?" Does President Johnson have to be in Vietnam to handle the situation in Vietnam?" Kirk said.

Florida Atty. Gen. Earl Faircloth said Tuesday night the suits that school boards and taxpayers have filed to try and force teachers back to work are academic.

"How can you force teachers to teach?" he asked in a speech at Gainesville. "How many do you put in jail for violating an injunction?"

The Board of Education met Tuesday and voted to give State School Supt. Floyd Christian emergency powers to cope with the crisis that closed schools from Pensacola to Miami and has kept about half of the 1.3 million pupils out of class.

Some 26,000 of the state's 60,844 teachers had quit their jobs in a group to reject what they consider stingy financing of the state's 1,800 public schools.

Kirk planned a round of meetings with advisors, including his legal aide, Wade Hopping. Hopping said Tuesday he did not agree with Kirk's claim at a Los Angeles news conference that the walkout would be solved quickly.

"I think he's being counterproductive to Phil Constans (executive secretary of the Florida Education Association) who has been saying the walkout is a complete success when it's not," Hopping said.

Marijuana, LSD Found, Three Held

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three Little Rock persons were arrested here Tuesday and charged with possession of LSD. Little Rock Police Chief R. E. Briens indicated more arrests would be made.

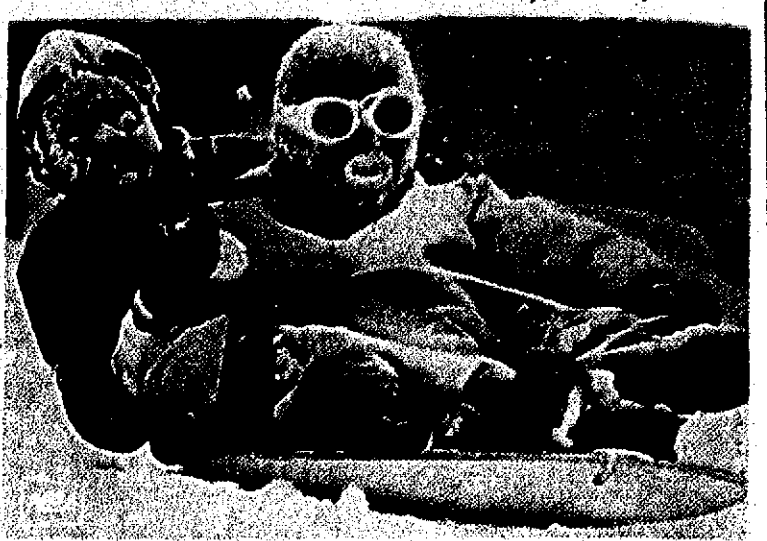

Briens said Mary Alexander, 21, was charged with possession of LSD, and that Ritchie Campbell, 21, and his wife, Pamela, 20, were arrested on charges of possession of LSD and marijuana.

The arrests capped an investigation that Briens said started last June and intensified in mid-December. He said he had been tipped that marijuana was being brought into the state.

Briens said more than 100 college-aged persons who frequented the residences where the police think marijuana was being used have been identified.

"It is difficult to say at this time how many more arrests will be made," Briens said. He said surveillances are continuing at some residences.

Briens said all three persons were arrested in downtown areas of the city. He said "two handfuls" of marijuana were found at the residence of the Campbells. He said Miss Alexander had some capsules that the police believed contained ALIEN INVADERS? No, just two boys, David Parke, 10, and Tommy Henderson, 11, saucerling down a snowy slope in Charlotte, N.C.

LSD, a hallucinatory drug, when she was arrested.

The Campbells were released on $3,000 bonds each and Miss Alexander was freed on a $1,500 bond.

The penalty for possession of marijuana, a felony and a federal offense, is a $2,000 fine and a two to five-year prison sentence.

The penalty for possession of LSD, a felony but not a federal offense, is either a $2,000 fine or a two to five-year prison term or both.

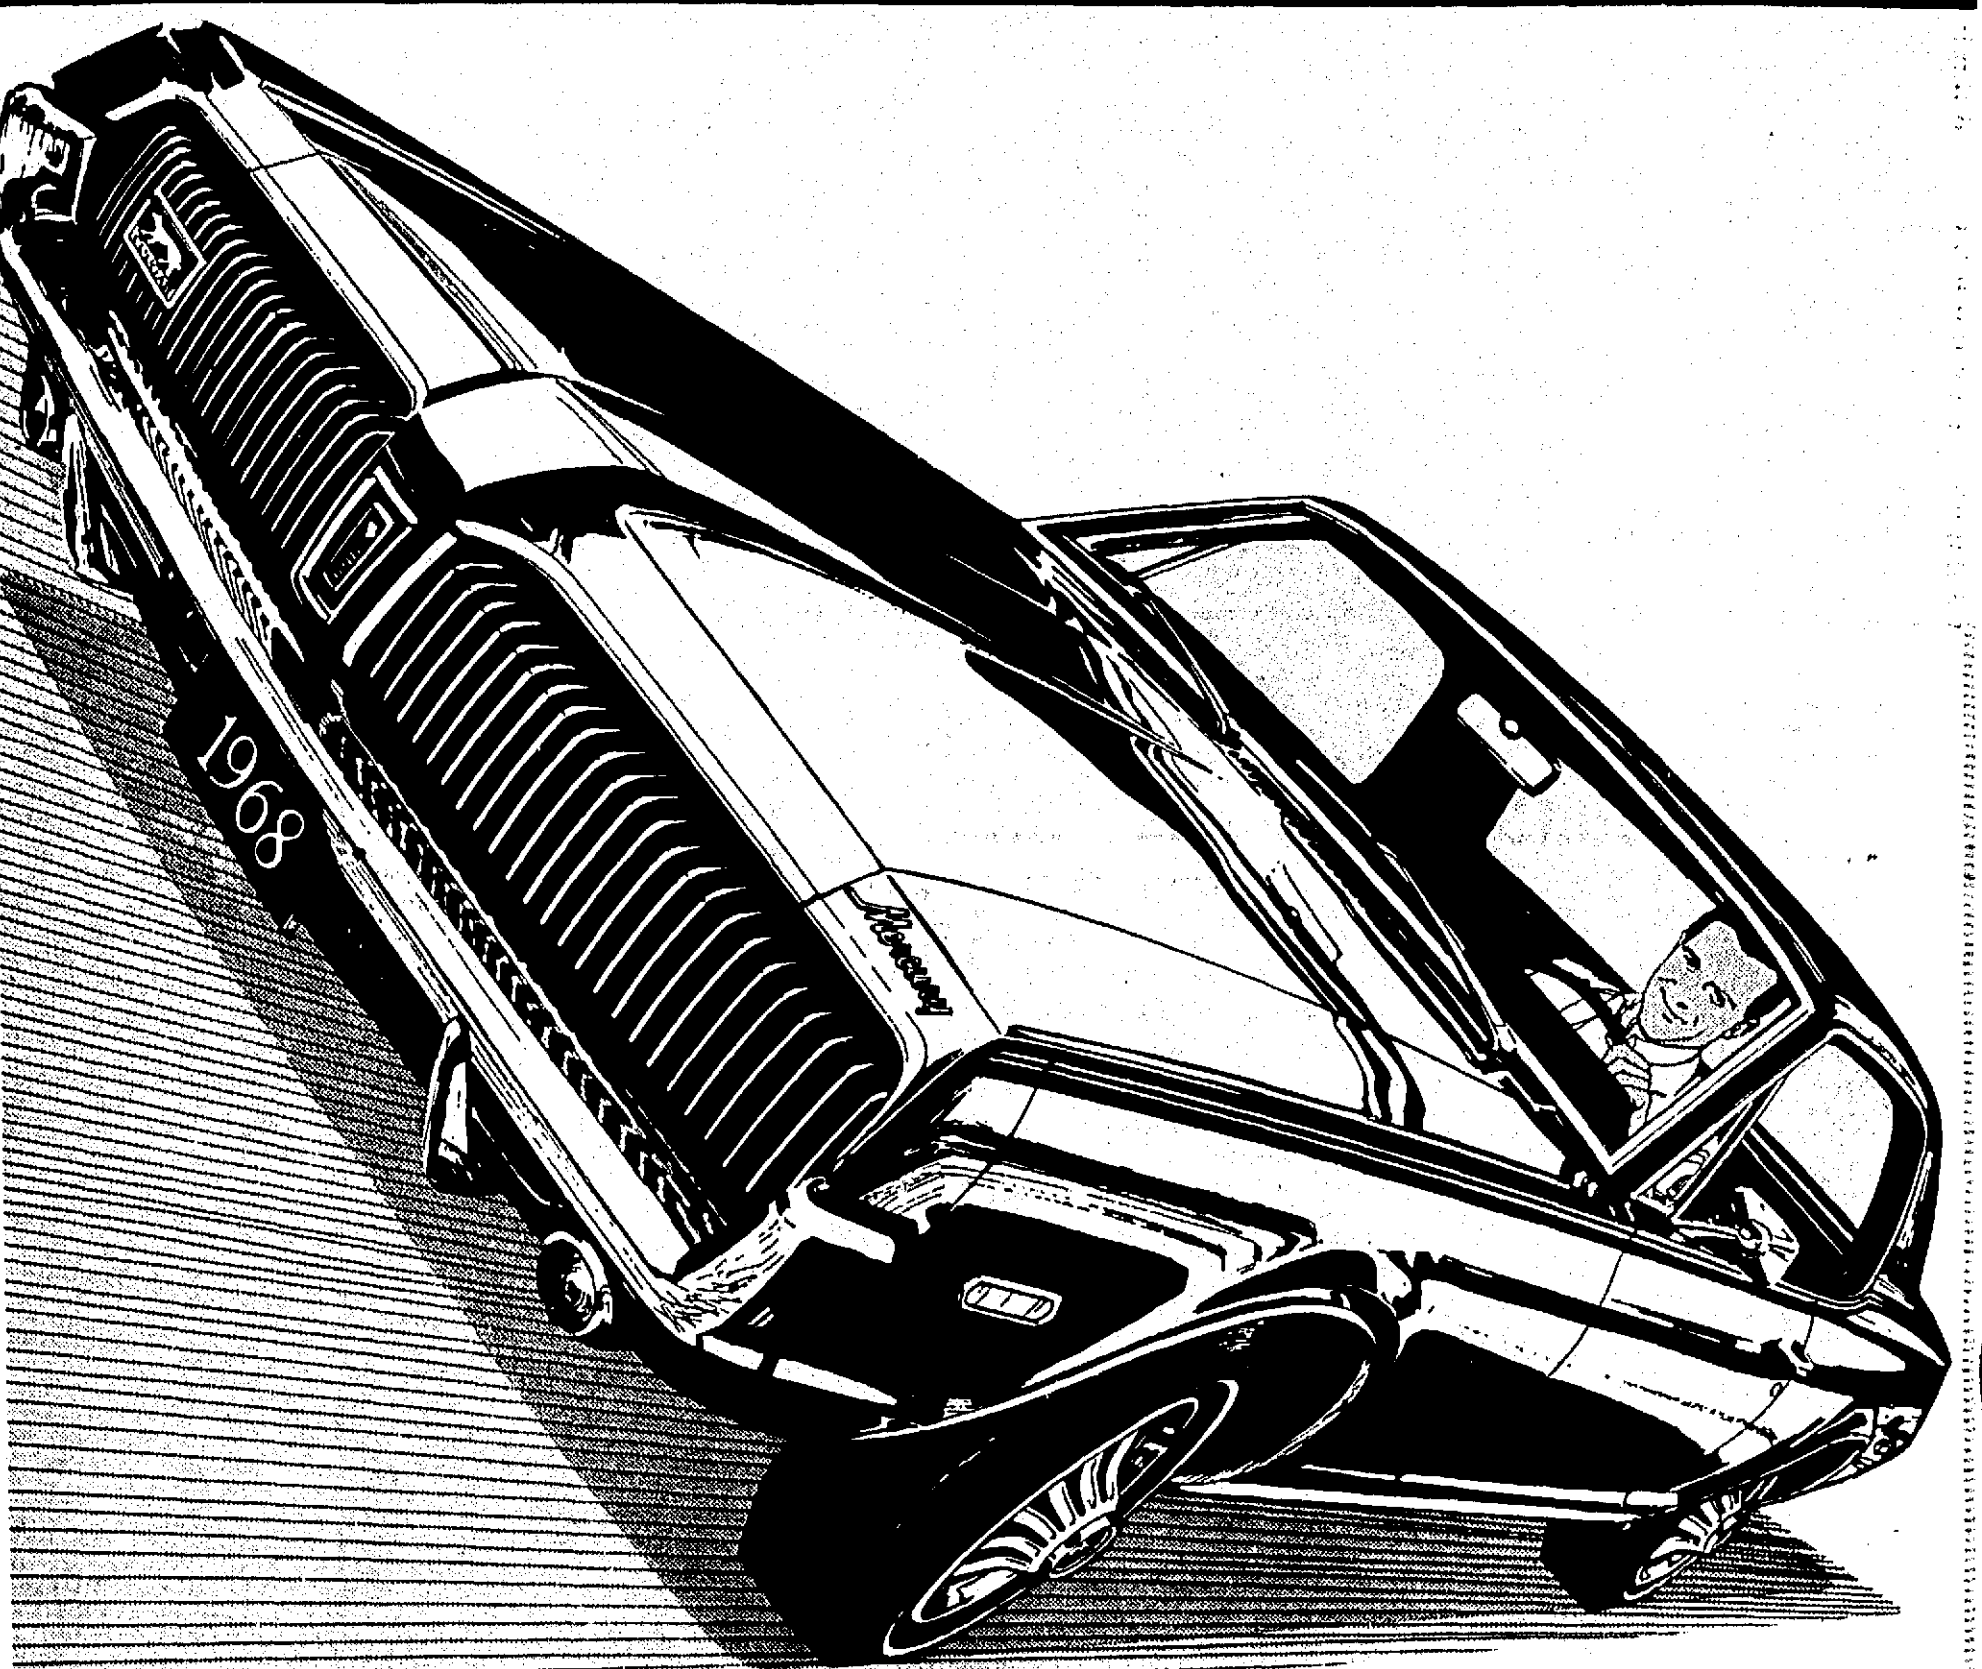

The 1967 General Assembly declared possession of LSD illegal, and Briens said he thought the charges were the first in the state.

Bob Thomas at the Movies

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Item 1: "Support Our Boys in Canada."

The reference is to Americans who cross the border to dodge the raft. Where does the placard appear? Not in a peace march, but on a network television show, "Laugh-In." It is flashed on the screen so rapidly that most viewers couldn't read it.

Item 2: On the Smothers Brothers Show, Tom and Dick are discussing the offering of London Bridge for sale. Tom says he would like to buy it, and Dick asks what he would do with the bridge.

Tom: I'd give it to President Johnson.
Dick: What for?
Tom: To bridge his credibility gap.

Item 3: Pat Paulsen, avowed noncandidate for president on the Smothers Brothers Show, comments: "As a comedian, I think I could be just as effective as President Johnson." Cut by the CBS censors was his following line: "But I don't think I could run the country as funny."

Item 4: Tommy Smothers, by a curious pattern of cross-pollination, appears on the Rowan and Martin "Laugh-In" and delivers the one-line blackout: "Let's all get behind President Johnson—and push!"

These items offer evidence of the New Dissent that has appeared in the entertainment medium during the past year. Dictionary definition: Dissent—to differ in sentiment or opinion from the majority.

Political satire has been a part of the American entertainment scene from Will Rogers to Bob Hope. Comedy makers from the time of Aristophanes have used those in authority as the butt of their jokes, usually to the glee of those who are governed.

But in recent times the tone of the satire has become more strident, the attacks more bitter. They range from the antilestablishment humor of The Smothers Brothers Show and "Laugh-In" to the sledge-hammer blows of the off-Broadway play, "MacBird."

The remarkable aspect of the New Dissent is the availability of mass media. When Harry Belafonte took over the "Tonight" show in place of Johnny Carson this month, he not only sang calypso songs; he also used the NBC program as a forum for his views on Vietnam.

Archbishop Named For St. Louis

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI has appointed Bishop John J. Carberry of Columbus, Ohio, to succeed the late Joseph Cardinal Ritter as archbishop of St. Louis, the Vatican announced today.

The 63-year-old native of Brooklyn has been bishop of Columbus since Jan. 16, 1965. Cardinal Ritter died last June 10.

The archbishop of St. Louis is traditionally a cardinal, and Bishop Carberry is expected to be elevated at the Pope's next consistory to create new princes of the church.

Nine cardinals have died since the last consistory last June, and there is speculation that the Pope will call another one before Easter, April 14.

It is expected at the Vatican that by then he will have named a new archbishop of New York to succeed the late Francis Cardinal Spellman and that this prelate also will get his red hat.

rum for his views on Vietnam. In interviewing Dr. Martin Luther King, Belafonte declared: "All of us here feel very strongly on the war, and we oppose it." The singer added his support of the protest vote for Sen. Eugene McCarthy. No demand for equal time to register opposing views has been reported.

Recently Tommy Smothers, who opposes President Johnson both on and off the television screen, was asked about the issue of equal time for Democratic loyalists.

"We feel the administration's views on Vietnam get plenty of airing on television," the comedian replied. "The Bob Hope Show, for example."

His argument is that Hope, with his Christmas special based on his entertainment tour of Vietnam, gives wide circulation to the hawkish side of the war. Hope and John Wayne are the most vocal of the show-business hawks; Wayne recently directed and starred in the first major film about the Vietnam war, "The Green Berets."

HELEN HELP US!

WEAK OR WILLING?

Dear Helen: What do you think of a woman who leaves her children every other night to entertain a man, and I do mean entertain?

This friend of mine says she is okay for a good time, but he wouldn't have her as a wife; she's not his type.

He is tired of her and wants to drop her, but she hangs on. He tells me he can't hurt her feelings by throwing her out. What should he do?—MISS CONCERNED

Dear Miss C: HE should either put starch in his backbone or truth on his tongue. And YOU should stay clear of this willing weakling.

How do you know he isn't feeding you both the same line?—H. Dear Helen: As a "newsletter at Christmas" writer myself, I must take umbrage with the tenants of "Mrs. Inadequate." This is a once-a-year get-together for our friends all over the world, and at what more joyous season?

Granted the letter shouldn't be an eulogium of "Our Fabulous Family"; but, though we include the unhappy events with the good, we bear in mind that this is the season to count our blessings, not recount our mean, growly moments.

If Pop takes a garden show award and Junior makes Eagle Scout and Junior Miss is making all her own clothes, these ARE the highlights of our year. Can you imagine writing or receiving: "Merry Christmas! Jack was picked up in an LSD raid. Big Jack is in the cooler for taking pot shots at the gendarmes. Sally left for Haight Ashbury last month, and I've got the D.T.'s?"

What's wrong with Mrs. Inadequate? Serving on a PTA membership committee is not nothing, as she implies. Offspring always come up with something wild and wonderful even if it isn't "A" averages; and, as to writing in July, (which she suggests to avoid the Christmas rush), it takes all year to PUT THIS one together!—UP WITH CHRISTMAS LETTERS!

Dear Up: I like 'em too—especially when they are written with the kind of flair you show in your letter.—H

Dear Helen: Why does a wife belittle, needle or attempt to beat down her husband in front of her relatives or mutual friends. This happens often, not only to me, but to other men.—MR. B.L.

Dear Mr. L: Perhaps she needs an audience for her sharp wit, but more likely she's evening the score for past slights. If you needle in front of company, it cuts deeper—and it's also safer. A gentleman hardly ever slugs his wife when relatives or friends are around, and by the time he gets her home, he's lost the urge. (But the resentment lingers on, and starts a new round of slights and slurs.)

NOTE TO WIVES: Fight fair! You'll have less fights in the long run!—H.

Dear Helen: When I invite friends for dinner and the evening, why is it some insist on bringing their pet dogs with them? If I wanted the dog, I would include him on the invitation. After all, they have a garage or basement and it won't ruin his psyche to be left alone three or four hours.

It certainly ruins my disposition, however, to clean up dog hair and whatnot the next day, not to speak of tripping over the animal while I'm cooking dinner.—UNHAPPY

P. S. Tell 'em, Helen. Dear Up: Dog lovers aren't easily "told," but you CAN cross them off your invitation list.—H.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help YOU. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bittel in care of The Hope Star.

Dear Parent:

We would like to offer a word of comfort to you both, as your own youngster begins his driving career.

The first thing to understand is that driving is a skill, and that - like all skills - it requires much practice. The heads of many Driver Education programs at schools advise newly-licensed drivers to log hundreds of driving miles under certain controlled conditions.

Their recommendations, which parallel the recommendations of safety experts are these: 1. The youngster should be driving a car that's mechanically sound. 2. He should be solo-driving, or driving with his parents, not with a carfull of chums. 3. He should be driving on little traveled roads. 4. He should be driving in daylight, only in fair weather at first.

Gradually, as handling a car begins to feel natural to him - and remember, each car handles differently - you'll want him to drive in a variety of situations under your supervision.

In your talks with your children, one point you should try to emphasize most is this: "The car you are driving is our legal and moral responsibility." Even if your youngster has saved enough to pay for a road-worthy car of his own, that car is still your responsibility. This gives you, as parents, indisputable authority to take away driving privileges temporarily when you believe they've been forfeited.

You will find that such an understanding with your youngsters should probably work out pretty well. It just seems to take a little patience, the courage and self-discipline to use your parental authority justly... and a sturdy sense of humor!

Yours sincerely,

Figures a Rematch of 2 Top Teams

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

You college basketball fans, better circle the date of Friday, March 22.

Assuming that all goes well the eagerly anticipated rematch between Houston and UCLA will take place that night in the semifinals of the NCAA championship tournament at Los Angeles along with another duel between the Big E, Elvin Hayes of Houston, and Mr. A., Lew Alcindor of UCLA.

The date was set up Tuesday when Houston's unbeaten Cougars, 23-0 in The Associated Press poll, accepted a bid to the NCAA tourney along with eight others, St. Bonaventure, 19-0; St. John's of New York, 16-0; Florida State, 17-5; Marquette, 19-3; Chicago Loyola, 13-6; New Mexico State, 18-4; Boston College 13-7; and other Columbia, 17-3; or Princeton, 17-4, whichever wins the Ivy League crown.

UCLA still has to clinch the Pacific-8 title to qualify for the NCAA along with 13 other automatic conference winners, but the Bruins are heavily favored to do so.

After that the Bruins will have to win the West Regional at Albuquerque, N.M., while Houston has to overcome Chicago Loyola at Salt Lake City, on March 9 and then take the Midwest Regional at Wichita, Kan. Houston, 23-0, ousted UCLA from the No. 1 ranking by snapping the Bruins' 47-game winning streak 71-69 in January before basketball's record crowd of 52,693 at Houston's Astrodome. Hayes scored 39 points and performed better than Alcindor. UCLA, now second-ranked, hasn't lost since and has a 20-1 mark.

Three independents, Army 18-4, Oklahoma City 17-6 and Fordham 14-6, were named to the other major postseason tourney, the National Invitation in New York, which opens March 14. Army passed up a bid to the NCAA in favor of the NIT.

The remainder of the 14-team NIT team likely will come from the runners-up in the Missouri Valley Conference, Atlantic Coast Conference, Southern Conference and Western Athletic Conference. Duquesne, a leading independent, also is hopeful of an NIT invite, having passed up the NCAA.

Duke's Blue Devils, eighth-ranked nationally and the only team in The AP Top Ten to play Tuesday, trimmed Clemson 82-70 on the road for their seventh straight and a 17-3 record. Mike Lewis' 32 points paced Duke which will compete in the NCAA if it wins the ACC crown or in the NIT if it finishes runnerup in the ACC.

St. John's, the one certain tournament bound team in action, also won on the road, but just barely. The Redman edged Massachusetts 55-53 at Amherst, Mass., on Jim Smyth's 30-foot shot in the last second.

Kansas tightened its hold on first place in the Big Eight by defeating Missouri on the road 74-65. In still another road triumph, Tennessee downed Georgia Tech 71-69 in two overtimes. Tom Boerwinkle's two free throws after time had run put in the second overtime won for the Vols.

Rick Mount, Purdue's sophostar, scored 38 points and led to the Boilermakers to an 86-73 victory over Iowa that tightened the Big Ten race. Ohio State, also playing at home, beat Northwestern 87-67 and regained first place at 7-3 compared to 6-3 for Iowa and Purdue.

Southern Methodist threw the Southwest Conference race into a triple tie by defeating Baylor on the road 70-63. Baylor now is tied for first at 7-4 with Texas A&M and Texas. Texas A&M gained the tie by defeating Arkansas 71-67 at home. Texas, also playing at home, moved up by downing Texas Tech 79-69.

Nations to Be Asked to End Boycott

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — The president of the South African Olympic Games Committee will personally ask all the countries boycotting the summer Olympics because of his country's participation to reconsider.

Frank Braun said Tuesday night, "I am going to approach these nations on a personal basis in order to emphasize to them they will be participating in an historic event by supporting South Africa."

"It will be the first time a team representing all races of South Africa will be competing."

So far, 14 countries have pulled out of the Mexico City games because of South Africa's admission to them. Kenya, Sudan and Iraq were the latest to withdraw, taking action Tuesday.

In addition, three Scandinavian politicians have urged Norway, Sweden and Denmark to ask for a reconsideration of the decision to let South Africa compete.

The South Africans, who did not compete in the 1984 games, have said they will send an integrated team to Mexico City in October, but will not have mixed trials in their country preceding the Games.

Braun said he expected South Africa's invitation to the Games to come from Mexico within the next 10 days. The vote to allow South Africa back into the games was taken last week at the winter games in Grenoble, France.

In Mexico City, meanwhile, Pedro Ramirez Vazquez, president of the Olympic Organizing Committee, said, "It is up to the South African countries to decide their own attitude. Mexico will fulfill as it always has done in the past all of its international pledges."

Tigers Play Tonight in Tournament
By LINDA WILLIAMS

The Tigers will journey to Gurdon tonight to play in the Senior Boys Tournament. Time is 6:30 p.m.

The Tigers need to win tonight so they can play Friday night. Knowing that the Tigers won against Stamps here last week, I'm sure this can be done again.

The mighty Tigers are nearing the end of their season of basketball, and everyone is hoping their season won't end before Friday night. Boys do a lot of running, shooting and less fouling and bring the victory home.

Junior boys started off the season very good, but seem like they have lost the up and go. They have ended their season, but never fear they will be back next season, only they will be losing a few like Dudley - his years with the junior boys were very helpful. He averaged from 14-16 points a game. Prater will also take his leave, leaving behind for the juniors to cherish his great ability to play ball and good sportsmanship. Newton goes to seek senior squad next year. Peery and Jackson also fly away from the arms of Mr. Straughter, the coach of the junior team.

The boys hate to leave the squad, but they look at it like this, "We are not leaving basketball, we're just going up a step." We say Good-bye to you from the junior team; Hello to you from the senior boys.

Fans come on lets go to Gurdon tonight and boost the boys to victory. From the Tigers dictionary comes the term - Defending - Players cannot touch the man with the ball. But they can bat the ball away, block passes, and wave their arms to try to distract him.

The Aggies were outscored from the field 60-50 but they made 21 of 27 free throw attempts while the Razorbacks got only 11 chances.

Texas Christian missed a chance to make it a four-way tie for the lead by losing to Rice 73-69 at Houston. Greg Williams scored 27 points including 11 of 14 free throw tries, for Rice.

The two-game road trips facing Baylor, Texas A&M and Texas have the Bears meeting Tech Saturday and Arkansas next Tuesday, the Aggies at TCU Saturday and at Tech Tuesday and the Longhorns playing SMU Saturday and TCU Tuesday.

The home windup for the co-leaders has Baylor meeting TCU, A&M facing SMU and Texas as catching Arkansas.

Russian, U.S. Athletes to Meet

OAKLAND (AP) — The United States' best long jumpers will meet a Russian challenge in the National AAU indoor track and field meet at the Oakland Arena Friday night.

The Russian, Tonu Lepik, surprised with a 25-foot-8½ inch victory over Bob Beamon and others at the recent Los Angeles Times meet. He also won at Seattle.

"But it will be very difficult" to defeat Beamon again, Lepik said on arrival here to top off his training. Lepik's best is around 27 feet. He is accompanied by six other Russians who will compete in the AAU meet Friday and Saturday.

Beamon won the recent invitational here with 26.10 but was disappointed he didn't clear 27 feet. His best is 27-1, an indoor record. Also in the long jump field will be the former Olympics champion, Ralph Boston, rounding toward top form, and Gayle Hopkins, Pasadena AA, who has a best of 26-9½. He's a former NCAA champion from Arizona State.

G&F Likely to Modify Dog Ruling

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Game and Fish Commission hinted Tuesday that it may modify its controversial ban on free-running dogs.

The commission, which said it would have a firm ruling prepared by April 1, has banned dogs from running free in the woods from April 1 through July 31.

The commission set up the ban because it contended that antlers are carrying their young during that four-month period.

Commissioner Tom Pugh of Portland said Tuesday at a meeting here that the commission's biologists would be asked to determine what areas could possibly be designated for fox hunting.

Maple Leafs Like to See Spring Come

TORONTO (AP) — There's a saying in Canada that snow comes in the winter and the Toronto Maple Leafs play for the Stanley Cup in the spring.

This year may be different. The snow has come. But it doesn't look as though the Leafs will get the opportunity to defend their Stanley Cup championship.

The Leafs have missed the National Hockey League playoffs only four times in the last 32 years. Their current standing in the six-team East Division is fifth, though, and they are nine points behind the Boston Bruins. Only the first four teams qualify for the postseason competition. Toronto has scored only 151 goals, the fewest among teams in its division, and therein seems to lie the trouble.

The demise of the Pete Stelmowski, Jim Pappin and Brian Conacher line is one of the reasons for the lack of goal production. "That was the line that we were counting on," Toronto Coach Punch Imlach said today. "It was our ace in the hole in last year's playoffs."

Imlach also cited lack of speed of his defensemen as a reason for his club's difficulties. "Our fellows are being beaten to the puck in their own end," he said.

Two Players Sign Their Contracts

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Pitchers Gary Peters of the Chicago White Sox, Al Jackson of the New York Mets and Moe Drabowsky of the Baltimore Orioles are among the major league baseball players who came to terms with their clubs Tuesday.

Peters, 16-11 last season with the second best ERA in the American League, was one of three players who signed Chicago contracts. Others were catcher Gerry McNetney and pitcher Bob Priddy.

Jackson, 9-4, last year signed for a reported $30,000 and became the final Met to sign a contract. Manager Gil Hodges begins workouts with the club today.

Drabowsky, a bullpen hero for the Orioles in the 1966 world series and 7-5 with 11 saves last year, also signed for about $30,000. Rookie first baseman Mike Fiore also agreed to terms Tuesday.

Catcher Jerry Zimmerman of the Minnesota Twins signed for about $17,000. The regular catcher for the Twins last year, Zimmerman, who hit only .17, figures to give way to John Roseboro, acquired in a winter trade with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Right-hander George Culver, acquired by Cincinnati in an off-season trade with Cleveland signed his contract Tuesday. The Oakland Athletics signed two of last year's Birmingham farm club players, pitcher George Lauzerique and outfielder Reggie Jackson.

Players still unsigned include pitchers Al Downing and Dooley Womack of the New York Yankees, outfielder Tony Oliva of the Minnesota Twins, outfielders Frank Robinson and Curt Blefary and infielder Boog Powell of the Baltimore Orioles and outfielders Rusty Staub and Jim Wynn of the Houston Astros.

Ex-Cardinal Running for Congress

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Wilmer "Vinegar Bend" Mizell, former pitcher with the St. Louis Cardinals, filed Tuesday for the Republican nomination to Congress in North Carolina's 5th District.

He will oppose Dr. Eldon D. Nielson, a Winston-Salem research scientist in the May 4 primary.

Asked how baseball affected his political ambitions, Mizell said if it hadn't been for baseball he might still be following a mule in Vinegar Bend, Ala.

"I've played ball in the 5th District and I certainly think it will help," he added in a double reference apparently also pointing to his experience as chairman of the Davidson County Board of Commissioners.

First Games in Garden Good Ones

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Dick Barnett was given the game ball Tuesday night and then had to give it back when Bill Bradley said he wouldn't play without it.

Barnett obviously did not mind. He simply continued dropping the ball in the basket and after shooting the New York Knicks to a 115-112 overtime victory over San Francisco in a National Basketball Association doubleheader at the New Madison Square Garden, he reclaimed his basketball and went home.

Barnett's willingness to overlook such callous gift-giving came after the Chicago Bulls had staged a stirring rally for a regulation tie and then topped Detroit 124-121 in another overtime thriller.

In other games, Philadelphia outscored Seattle 30-2 in a torrid fourth quarter en route to a 140-108 rout and Earl Monroe shot Baltimore to a 127-115 triumph over St. Louis in a doubleheader at Philadelphia's Spectrum. Boston walloped Cincinnati 126-110 in an afternoon game in Boston.

In the American Basketball Association, Dallas outlasted Oakland 148-130, Minnesota tripped Denver 119-117 and Pittsburgh beat Anaheim 121-114.

New York salvaged a 104-all tie at the end of regulation time as Barnett scored the Knicks' last 10 points while Jim King and Jeff Mullins were wiping out a 92-82 deficit for the Warriors.

After Mullins' jump shot tied the game with eight seconds left, Barnett quickly got the Knicks ahead with the first basket of the overtime and suddenly the game stopped.

"I thought the officials were going to take the basket away and call a foul," said Knicks' Coach Red Holzman, an angry man at the time.

But the stoppage was to give the ball to Barnett, who had just scored the 10,000th and 10,001th points of his NBA career.

"I didn't know they were going to stop the game," Barnett said. "I thought someone was hurt."

Then, when play continued, Bradley, Barnett's teammate, complained that the new ball had too much air in it, prompting a grinning Holzman to plead with Barnett to let them use his ball again.

Barnett agreed, dropped in two more baskets in the overtime for a total of 32 points and the Knicks went home happy along with a record sellout crowd of 19,500, the largest gathering ever to see an NBA game.

No one gave Bob Boozer of the Bulls the game ball in the opener, but he responded anyway with a similar performance.

Boozer, Jerry Sloan and Clem Haskins teamed for 11 straight points that brought the Bulls from a 109-97 deficit to within 109-108, and Boozer's drive with seven seconds left forced an extra period.

Boozer then hit seven of his 35 points, including Chicago's last five, for the victory.

Philadelphia pulled out of a 107-100 lead with its spree behind Hal Greer, who finished with 32 points, Wilt Chamberlain set up another gamestopper with 20 points and 20 rebounds. He needs only five points against Detroit Friday to reach 25,000 career points.

Monroe scored 35 points and Ray Scott hauled in 25 rebounds as Baltimore barely protected an early 23-point lead after St. Louis pulled within 101-96. Eight straight points put the game out of reach.

Porks Lose Another Close One

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — Texas A&M virtually eliminated the Arkansas Razorbacks from the Southwest Conference basketball race here Tuesday night with a 71-67 victory.

The Aggies built up a four-point halftime lead, then matched the Razorbacks point for point in the second half to gain their four-point victory.

The win enabled A&M to move into a first-place tie with Baylor and Texas for the conference lead. SMU whipped Baylor 70-63 to throw the race into a three-way tie.

Arkansas, once only a game out of the lead, now finds itself with a 5-6 conference record, two full games behind the leaders.

The Razorbacks had a chance to tie the game with 33 seconds left, but shots by James Eldridge and Robert McKenzie bounced off the rim. A&M led 67-65 at the time and kept the lead the rest of the way.

Arkansas stayed in the game on the defensive work of Eldridge and Gary Stephens. Arkansas hit 30 field goals to 24 for the Aggies but A&M connected on 21 of 27 free throw attempts to only seven of 11 for Arkansas.

Arkansas' playmaker guard Benton Cone was the leading scorer for the Razorbacks with 19. Eldridge tossed in 16 and they were the only Porkers in double figures.

Sonny Benefield led A&M with 19, followed by John Underwood with 14. Mike Heltman with 11 and Ronnie Peret with 14.

Dallas Shoots Way Into Record Book

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Dallas shot itself into the American Basketball Association record book and, perhaps more important, into second place in the league's Western Division.

Beating Oakland 148-130 Tuesday night, the Chaparrals topped by two points the ABA's team high for a single game, set by Pittsburgh last December.

With Denver losing to Minnesota 119-117, Dallas moved one-half game ahead of the Rockets, who dropped to third place. In the only other ABA game, Pittsburgh beat Anaheim 121-114.

In the National Basketball Association, Chicago beat Detroit 124-121 in overtime, Boston downed Cincinnati 126-110, New York edged San Francisco 115-112 in overtime, Baltimore trimmed St. Louis 127-115 and Philadelphia crushed Seattle 140-108.

Dallas scored 79 points in the second half. Cincy Powell was the leading scorer with 35 points, while five of his teammates hit in double figures. Dave Lee led Oakland with 27 points.

Minnesota remained 2½ games behind first-place Pittsburgh in the Eastern Division. The Muskies were trailing by 14 points in the first half, but Les Hunter with 33 points led the way back. Wayne Hightower topped Denver with 28 points.

Pittsburgh's victory was its fifth in a row and four players hit 20 or more points. Charlie Williams had 27, Connie Hawkins 25, Tom Washington 21 and Art Heyman 20. Ben Warley of Anaheim led all scorers with 29.

lain set up another gamestopper with 20 points and 20 rebounds. He needs only five points against Detroit Friday to reach 25,000 career points.

Monroe scored 35 points and Ray Scott hauled in 25 rebounds as Baltimore barely protected an early 23-point lead after St. Louis pulled within 101-96. Eight straight points put the game out of reach.

Confident Diplomacy Will Work

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson is depicted by White House visitors as quietly confident that diplomacy eventually will win release of the captured intelligence ship Pueblo's crew.

In the face of a new North Korean threat to try the 82 surviving crew members, Johnson was said to believe a way will be found to reach a settlement after the other side has had its day of blustering.

In Moscow Tuesday, Zang le Zoon, counselor of the North Korean Embassy, told a news conference the Pueblo's crew will be punished and any American reprisals would bring immediate war.

The United States already had warned that any punishment would be a "deliberate aggravation" of the crisis. The North Korean diplomat said the ship's personnel, "having committed crimes in one country, will get the punishment provided, by that country."

"If the American imperialists dare to make reprisals, then war will break out immediately," he said.

These threats seem to be regarded at the White House as a part of the game when dealing with the Communists. More important, it was said, was that after early shouting sessions at Panmunjom some real negotiating now is going on.

The State Department confirmed the eighth meeting on the Pueblo case was held at Panmunjom, but declined to give details of the session.

the speedy shipment to Vietnam of about 10,500 Army paratroopers and Marines specifically asked for by Westmoreland as insurance against an expected Communist assault on the Khe Sanh stronghold in northwestern South Vietnam.

This development highlighted the manpower squeeze because it drew from the United States a brigade of the 82nd Airborne Division, the last division-size Army outfit capable of quick reaction to meet new crises which may develop in the Caribbean, Mediterranean or elsewhere.

The necessity to draw also on an already thin Marine contingent in the United States also tended to underscore the overall manpower problem.

The Army and Marines have tried to allow a man at least 24 months away from Vietnam before he is sent back.

But authorities said an exception had to be made in the case of the new reinforcement of 10,500 paratroopers and Marines.

About 40 per cent of the paratroop brigade had been back from Vietnam less than two years, and many less than one year. The Marine regiment was in somewhat the same shape.

Faced with strong protests from congressmen and relatives of men being returned to Vietnam, the Army is developing a plan to permit what is called a "phase return" of men who had recently returned from their first war tour.

Officials said the plan has not yet been approved.

Mrs. Beatrice Crawford, chief matron of the Arkansas Women's Prison, discussed some of the changes made recently in the state prison for women at the regular Tuesday meeting of the Hope Kiwanis Club.

Mrs. Crawford is also dietitian for both Cummings and Tucker prisons. There are about 1,350 persons in prison at the present time. Mrs. Crawford was accompanied to Hope by Tay Porter, chief security officer. Dr. F. C. Crow introduced the guest speaker.

Rights Bill Backers to Try Again

By JOHN CHADWICK Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Some Senate backers of President Johnson's civil rights bill, already dealt one serious setback, plan jettisoning an open-housing provision in an effort to salvage the original measure.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said he will propose tabling the controversial open-housing section — an amendment to the administration bill — when debate resumes today. Tabling would kill the amendment.

But other supporters of open housing talked of a bid to modify the amendment in hopes it might be made more acceptable to opponents.

Both strategies aim at saving the civil rights bill itself, which would make it a federal crime to interfere with Negroes and civil rights workers pursuing equal rights.

The Senate voted 55 to 37 Tuesday for cutting off the debate, seven short of the two-thirds vote needed for cloture. The debate has been going on since Congress convened Jan. 15.

A second cloture vote set for Monday also seems headed for failure unless there is a shift of Republican ranks. GOP senators split 18 to 18 on Tuesday's vote after Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen urged the Senate not to gag itself by approving cloture.

The Democratic tally was 37 for and 19 against. Except for three senators from small Western states, Southern opponents of the civil rights measure accounted for all the Democratic votes against cloture.

Mansfield has indicated he will move to lay the legislation aside if the second attempt to cut off debate does not succeed.

Mansfield has emphasized that without Dirksen's support, he sees no chance of getting the two-thirds majority necessary to choke off debate.

Built a Better Mouse Trap

DALLAS, Ore. (AP) — The Dallas, Ore., chapter of the Future Farmers of America has built a better mouse trap. Here's how it works:

You take a coffee can with a plastic top and fill it with water. Then you cut several slits in the plastic top, making its surface very weak.

Next you put peanut butter on the underside of the top. Then you bury the can in a field that has a mouse problem.

The mice smell the peanut butter, step on the slit plastic, fall into the coffee can and drown — the future farmers hope.

Six Amateurs Leave for North Pole

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Six amateur adventurers leave today for their overland attempt to reach the North Pole.

Led by Ralph Plaisted, a St. Paul insurance man, the expedition of five Americans and one Canadian hopes to become the first to reach the Pole by surface since Adm. Robert Peary made it in 1909.

Peary made the trip by dog-sled. Plaisted and his crew will use snowmobiles.

Plaisted failed to complete the trip last year when his expedition was forced to turn back in May after 38 days, 370 miles from the Pole.

His reason for attempting the difficult and dangerous polar trek a second time is simple: "It's there and the challenge is ours. Even if we fail, we have more satisfaction than those who remain in the gray area — the warm house, the television set — of those who never try and can never know success or failure."

Accompanying Plaisted are a pathologist, a geography instructor and three engineers. They are amateur explorers, but they are not inexperienced.

In addition to the experience they gained on last year's attempt, they have been training on weekends since December in the frozen muskeg and timber of northern Minnesota.

With Plaisted on the trip will be Donald E. Powellek, 40, of St. Paul; Arthur C. Auderhelde, 43, of Duluth; Gerald R. Pitzl, 34, of St. Paul; Jean Luc Bombardier, 29, of Montreal; and Walter H. Pederson, 40, of St. Cloud, Minn.

Plaisted said the first expedition was defeated by blizzards and the spring ice breakup. Since then Plaisted has trimmed the size of his party from eight to six, lightened the load, reduced the number of snowmobiles from eight to four and increased the machine's horsepower from 10 to 10.

The crew hopes to start over the ice cap by March 1.

sprayed them with tear gas. This touched off a heavy fire-fight that echoed all over the coastal city 400 miles northeast of Saigon.

Lt. Gen. Robert Cushman Jr., commander of the U.S. Marines in Vietnam, said the battle in Hue could go on for several more weeks because the enemy still was able to send in fresh supplies and troops.

Cushman told newsmen in Da Nang one Marine battalion had suffered serious casualties in the fighting and would be replaced.

He estimated that the Communists had put an entire division into the Hue battle and said they are committed to fight to the last man. The enemy is believed to be moving in fresh men and supplies through gates they control in the northwest and southwest corners of the Citadel and through tunnels and sewers beneath the east wall.

Cushman said soldiers of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division were attacking a fortified village on the outskirts of Hue along the Communists' supply route and, once it falls, the soldiers would move to seal off the last enemy approach to Hue.

The Communists still hold all of the Citadel's south wall, much of the west wall, and control sections south, east and west of the Citadel, despite the efforts of 4,000 allied troops to dislodge them.

U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese troops have reported killing 3,000 enemy soldiers since the Communists seized most of Hue Jan. 31 in the lunar new year's offensive against 33 cities and towns.

About 100 Marines have been killed and many more wounded.

Lt. Gen. Hoang Xuan Lam, commander of the 1st Corps area, said 400 of his troops had been killed and 700 wounded in and around the Citadel.

Lam claimed 85 per cent of the 1 1/2-mile-square Citadel was in allied hands and said the rest could be taken in three or four days once the weather cleared enough for allied planes to operate.

South Vietnamese Marines reported that in three sharp clashes

Today's hand has appeared in our column before. Oswald Jacoby was North and one of the greatest hand hogs of all time sat South.

This hand was played in the early days of contract when any suit response to one no-trump was a one round force. South also hated to have his partners jump so Jacoby contented himself with a two heart response although he knew that he wanted to be in game at least.

South's jump rebid to three no-trump showed at least 17 points. He played indefinite but strong no-trumps. Jacoby visualized a heart slam at this point but was afraid that a jump to the heart slam would merely lead to a six no-trump contract. So he made a second underbid of four hearts.

Sure enough, the hand hog came right back with four no-trump. He had 4-3-3-3 distribution and even though his four card suit was the one his partner had been bidding, South wanted to play the hand.

At this point Jacoby finally decided to bid his values and jumped to six hearts. South bid six no-trump!

South made a valiant effort to make his no-trump slam. He ducked the first club in order to set up a possible squeeze. He won the second club and ran hearts. East chucked a club as soon as possible to give West a count of that suit. Then East hung onto his diamonds while West just held whichever black cards South did.

Of course, six hearts would have been a cinch because one of South's hearts could have been used to ruff that fourth diamond. Jacoby was mad then. He is still mad 35 years later, but blames himself for trying to get the hog to let him play a hand.

ital to the future of the world, yet being unable to make the people at large understand this."

Gaud refused to accept speculation that his foreign aid program will be torn apart by Congress because of AD's troubles. "We're going to have a tough time getting the $2.5 billion we asked for," he acknowledged. "But that would have been true in any case; it always is."

"Maybe I'm a sucker for feeling this way, but I think most of them (congressmen) recognize that we're trying to run this agency well, constantly improving ourselves. Those who like to make a career of kicking us, of course, will certainly have a new pretext for doing so."

Gaud enthusiastically claimed AD accomplishments in the agricultural and economic development of the world's emerging nations; of the gradual acceptance of birth control in the heavily populated ones.

A neat, tweedy dresser, he sat in a straight-back chair in his well-appointed State Department suite. His slightly-cultured accent made it doubly surprising when he larded his phrases with seamanlike expletives.

"The problem is that there's been a great change in foreign aid since it really got going in the 50's," Gaud said. "At the time of the Marshall Plan, we were aiding Europe—the French, the Dutch, the Belgians, with whom we had blood ties."

"The Cold War was hotter then; people were really worried about communism. They had a real stake in foreign aid. Today it's going to a lot of people they've never heard of before—Indians, Bolivians, Thais. "People haven't caught up with the fact that what happens in these countries matters to us."

A native New Yorker, Gaud grew up in Charleston, S. C. His home town now is Greenwich, Conn. During World War II he helped supervise lend-lease to India, China and Burma. He left his law practice in New York to join AD in 1961 as an assistant administrator. He became deputy administrator in 1964 and was sworn into his present job in July 1968.

Gaud vents his frustrations by battling a tennis ball on week-ends and Chesapeake Bay from the deck of a sloop during the summer.

Would he consider resigning under the recent barrage? "Anything but," said William Steen Gaud. "When the going gets tough, the tough get going."

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Unstable Blood Pressure Possible in Some Cases

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—If a person's blood pressure was 170/108 and the prescribed medicine brought it down to normal in one week would that be lowering it too fast?

A—This would depend on several factors. In general, a more gradual lowering over three or four weeks would be preferable.

Q—Is it possible to have a high and low blood pressure at the same time?

A—It is possible to have a very unstable blood pressure so that, when the doctor first takes it, the upper reading is 190 or more and when he takes it again a few minutes later it is only 120. It would be rare, however, to find an abnormally low reading—a systolic reading of less than 100—in such a person.

It is also possible to have a high systolic (upper) and a low diastolic (lower) reading with a leaky aortic valve.

Q—Could high blood pressure cause a film over the eyes, or blindness?

A—A film of mucus over the eyes is usually caused by a chronic inflammation of the conjunctiva, not by high blood pressure. Hypertension can, however, cause blindness.

Q—Is it true that if a person loses part of his vision from hemorrhages in the eye due to hypertension there is no treatment that will restore his sight?

A—If the retinal disease is in its earliest stage (inflammation only) and the process can be checked, the inflammation will subside, the blood clots will be absorbed and some improvement in vision can be expected. In most cases, however, a part of the retina is destroyed and cannot be replaced.

Q—Could gelatin desserts cause high blood pressure?

A—No, not even if you ate a double portion every day.

Q—What is the danger when the blood pressure stays around 190/105?

A—The complications include damage to the kidneys and retina and rupture of arteries that have hardened (coronary disease if they are in the heart and stroke if they are in the brain).

Q—I have high blood pressure and am taking Salutarin. What are its side effects?

A—This combination is an effective blood pressure reducer but it should be used cautiously by persons with kidney disease.

Cold Comfort Northwest Alley Lots to Learn

An old Little Rock fishing companion arrived in Hope this cold and windy morning and opined:

"The trouble Arkansas has in getting into Spring reminds me of something I read in a South Dakota newspaper. In South Dakota they say Spring is a short period between Winter and Summer, alternating between hope and despair."

The guy's a pessimist.

And then there's the Hope fisherman who gets awfully tired looking at the TV weather map and its forecast that still another cold wave is coming down out of the Pacific Northwest.

"Try another station," says he - "It may be different."

The guy's an optimist.

An increasing percentage of American public opinion turns against our war in Vietnam, a newspaper headline tells me. The percentage isn't important enough to affect the conduct of the war, but it is an indicator of shortcomings in our new and unwanted role as a world power.

Americans have a lot to learn about foreign relations. For one thing a highly vocal minority insists that war comes to us as a matter of choice - ignoring history's lesson that every world-wide power is almost constantly fighting some war, little or big, in a far country, out of necessity. Either you stand and fight, or you withdraw - and the trouble-makers advance. Nations face precisely the same problem that confronts a policeman: Either he breaks up the riot - or the rioters take the town.

Am I over-simplifying the story? Hardly. That's how history wrote Rome, Spain, France, Great Britain, our predecessors in the world's "hot seat."

Arctic Cold Dumps Snow on Arkansas

A cold high pressure system trailing an arctic cold front dumped sleet, freezing rain and snow early today over two-thirds of the state, giving motorists another miserable morning on the highways.

It created a holiday for children, however, as numerous school districts across the state closed classes for the day. The State Police warned motorists of hazardous driving conditions in wide sections of Arkansas, particularly in the Little Rock District, where all roads were described as extremely hazardous.

The U.S. Weather Bureau at Little Rock said snow accumulations were expected to range from one to three inches. A spokesman said the snow was expected to end this afternoon. State Police reported numerous accidents, including a "bundle" in the Little Rock area.

Traffic was stacked up on Interstate 40 near Prothro Junction at the eastern edge of North Little Rock by a 13-car pileup in which a trailer truck overturned on one car, flattening the top. The driver of the car escaped with scratches.

Accidents and stalled cars piled up traffic for several miles on Interstate 30 south of Little Rock. Motorists were late to work and some Little Rock businesses closed for the day. Maj. Bill Miller of the State Police said U.S. 67 from Walnut Ridge to the Missouri line was completely tied over. He said U.S. 70 and all bridges in the Clarksville District were extremely hazardous.

Car Rolls Twice Near Emmet

Two Prescott men escaped serious injury early last night when the car in which they were riding failed to negotiate a curve and rolled over twice. The accident occurred near Emmet on Highway 67.

State Trooper Wallace Martin listed the driver as a Mr. Roedel of Prescott and a passenger, William Justice, also of Prescott. They were taken to a Prescott hospital for treatment. Deputy Sheriff Herbert Griffin assisted in the investigation.

Legislature Rushing to Adjournment

By ED SHEARER
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) - The special session of the General Assembly adjourned sine die today, completing 13 days of work at noon.

Both houses earlier in the day had adopted a Senate resolution calling for final adjournment at noon.

The two compromise measures thus went to Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller for his signature as the two houses worked toward a noon adjournment after reconvening at 10:30 a.m.

There could be one hitch, however, if sponsors of Senate Bill 6, the "Lyn Davis" measure, are able to get it to a vote and gain passage of it. However, most observers consider this to be doubtful.

The House attached nine amendments, most of them minor or only clarification points, to the Senate's bill that would create a Department of Corrections and the upper chamber quickly concurred in each amendment.

The House knuckled under to Senate demands for a 1970 vote on any new constitution proposed by a constitutional convention, even though convention advocates staunchly opposed it, preferring that the electorate decide on any new document in a special election in 1969.

Nevertheless, the electorate will decide this November whether to call a convention and at the same time elect 10 delegates to a convention by using the 1967 House apportionment.

The prison bill, the third one drafted for the session, was drawn by some select legislators and Prison Board Chairman John Haley of Little Rock after the legislature opposed many of the sections of the two original drafts.

The bill creates a Department of Corrections to administer a prison system of three units - Tucker and Cummins prison farms and the Women's Reformatory.

The present Prison Board will be renamed the Board of Corrections and will no longer deal with pardons and paroles. A separate three-man Pardons and Parole Board is created.

The major amendments attached by the House prevents a section dealing with parole eligibility from becoming retroactive to cover inmates already incarcerated at the prison farms. Another amendment deleted a portion that would allow the Board of Corrections to pay salaries to inmates for working.

The House voted 82-8 to concur in the Senate amendment calling for a 1970 constitution vote and Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller later said he would reluctantly go along with it so that a convention would not be

Foreign Aid Chief Is Taking Lumps Over High Spending AID

By JOSEPH E. MOHBAT

WASHINGTON (AP) - Foreign aid chief William Steen Gaud is taking his lumps but bearing up well, at least in public.

He's undergone a two-week bombardment of charges of scandal and inefficiency in his far-flung, high-spending Agency for International Development. Yet the lean, salty administrator - in his first interview since the storm season began - still talked with undiminished zeal of a worldwide agricultural revolution and the blessings of birth control.

A sex scandal involving AID officials in Belgium? A high-level pardoned expense account in Washington?

"Foolishness. Just sheer foolishness in both cases. Not viciousness at all," Gaud (rhymes with cloud) told a reporter.

"And anyone who says the whole AID operation is rotten because of these things is talk-

Nation's Top Official on Drugs Gets Go-ahead Sign to Give Testimony

By JACK MILLER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) - Administration officials, saying they weren't attempting to silence Dr. James L. Goddard's opposition to President Johnson's LSD-control proposal, announced the nation's top drug official has been given a go-ahead to testify on Capitol Hill.

Goddard's availability to appear before a Senate panel looking into the LSD proposal was

Disagree on Real Story of Tonkin

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) -

Wary adversaries after a 7½-hour confrontation, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Sen. J. W. Fulbright still disagreed on the real story of the naval engagement which prompted the first U.S. bombing of North Vietnam.

McNamara issued a 21-page account of the affair, over Fulbright's objection, contending the administration proved conclusively that the U.S. destroyers Maddox and Turner Joy were attacked by North Vietnamese torpedo boats in international waters on Aug. 4, 1964.

He termed "monstrous" any suggestion the United States induced the attack, seeking an excuse for its subsequent retaliation.

Fulbright, the Arkansas Democrat who heads the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said the public statement McNamara issued "does not tell the whole story by any means."

Fulbright did not relate his version. "I'm too worn out to attempt any kind of discussion," he said after McNamara's marathon appearance before the committee.

"I'm on overtime now," McNamara told newsmen as he emerged from the closed committee room, refusing to answer questions.

And so the session which ran into Tuesday night produced only fresh controversy over the engagement in the Gulf of Tonkin.

McNamara's session with the committee clearly was a sometimes angry affair. Fulbright said he had urged McNamara not to release his statement, but the secretary had it distributed at the Pentagon.

In it, McNamara said the U.S. destroyers had in no way provoked attacks by the North Vietnamese, and had not participated in South Vietnam's bombardment of Communist islands in the gulf, assaults which occurred at about the same time.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., said the South Vietnamese used boats supplied by the United States, and contended "North Vietnam had every reason to fear" the U.S. destroyers.

made known Tuesday, one day after it was learned he was kept from testifying at a scheduled Monday hearing.

Goddard, food and drug commissioner, has declined to discuss the issue with newsmen. But he previously told Congress he doesn't believe in making possession of LSD a federal crime.

Johnson has asked Congress to make possession of the powerful hallucinogen a misdemeanor, punishable by up to a year in jail.

Theodore O. Cron, assistant food and drug commissioner, said when and if Goddard testifies he'll again express opposition to penalties for possession of LSD if asked for his personal opinion.

But Cron said Goddard will support administration proposals for stiffer penalties for sale of LSD and other drugs.

When Goddard was scratched from appearing at the opening of the Senate panel's hearing, Chairman Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., postponed the hearing indefinitely. He reportedly told the administration if Goddard couldn't appear, he didn't want anyone else.

Officials said there had been no intention to silence Goddard. They said the reason he couldn't testify Monday was that he had to be available to help with briefings for reporters at the White House if the President's health message to Congress were issued that day. It wasn't.

Ralph K. Hult, assistant secretary for legislation of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, said officials originally had felt that Justice officials should testify on the LSD proposal, which includes transferring the drug abuse control program from Goddard's agency to the Justice Department.

Administration sources said it had been hoped Dodd's panel would accept a substitute so Goddard would not have to testify at all in Congress on the issue.

But Hult said, "We're not trying to keep Dr. Goddard away from him - if he wants to have Dr. Goddard he can have him."

Democrat's Info 68 Is a Casualty

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - The customary showing of Info '68, the television program sponsored by Democratic State Chairman Leon Callett, is not scheduled for showing tonight on Little Rock station KTHV-TV.

Callett could not be reached for immediate comment. The television station said that the program had been deleted and was not rescheduled at another time.

The program has sparked considerable controversy in the Democratic ranks, and some Democrats have called for discontinuance of the program.

University Merger Bill Is Passed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - The Arkansas Senate passed a "watered down" resolution Tuesday authorizing a study on the proposed merger of the University of Arkansas and Little Rock University.

The resolution was weaker than the Pulaski County delegation wanted, but it still promoted debate for more than two hours.

The original resolution directed the Commission on Coordination of Higher Education Finance to prepare a proposed budget for the merger.

However, the House amended it to instruct the commission to prepare the proposed budgets for all state-supported colleges and universities and to prepare plans and budgets for a merger and a possible new institution in Central Arkansas.

Opponents of the measure said other state colleges needed attention before another institution was created.

U.S. Planes Return to Battle of Hue

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) - U.S. Marine jets returned to the battle for Hue today for the first time in five days as one of the Vietnam war's most savage and sustained campaigns went into its fourth week.

The Marine pilots sent bombs, rockets and napalm into Communist troops dug in among a row of shanties just outside the south wall of the Hue Citadel.

AP Correspondent George McArthur reported that the bombs scored a direct hit on a Communist ammunition dump touching off a spectacular flash and a fire that cast a pall of black smoke over the city.

Marines on the south bank of the Perfume River, across from the 15-yard strip bombed by the jets, could see figures running from the area and opened fire with their machine guns. They cut down a dozen small groups.

Earlier the Marines on the south side of the river broadcast warnings across telling all civilians to leave the area and the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong holding out in the former Imperial Palace to surrender or die.

When no white flag went up, the Marines sent artillery barges slamming into the Communist strong points and

ABA Action Sure to Limit Flow of News on Arrests, Trials

By BARRY SCHWEID

CHICAGO (AP) - At the moment, the American Bar Association's press-trial standards are what ABA officials have insisted all along they be called - recommendations.

Undoubtedly, they will encourage judges, lawyers and policemen to limit the flow of information to the public about arrests and trials. In fact, the ABA discovered, some already have.

Eventually, though, in the words of one top news official: Publishers will go to court "to prove that prior restraint on official news sources amounts to censorship in advance in violation of the First Amendment."

Only after this court fight, predicted by J. Edward Murray of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, will it be known if the standards will stick.

Immediately in the offering is this: The proposed restrictions on what prosecutors and defense lawyers may say about a pending criminal case will be forwarded to an ABA committee that is in the process of revising the organization's ethics code.

ABA President Earl F. Morris expects the first draft of the new code to be ready next summer and the final version, he hopes, will be presented to the House of Delegates for adoption a year from now.

Morris says the standards then would be binding on the members of the ABA. This includes about 120,000 practicing lawyers.

Pentagon Intends to Keep One-Year Duty Tour in Vietnam

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Pentagon apparently intends to maintain the one-year Vietnam duty tour regardless of any other actions to bolster U.S. military manpower in Southeast Asia.

"There is no sentiment in favor of stretching the tour," one high official said. "The one-year tour is awfully useful as a morale builder."

Defense authorities are studying several possible measures to ease the manpower pinch resulting from the over-rising demands of the Vietnam war.

Possible actions include calling to active duty thousands of National Guardsmen and reservists, increasing draft calls, shortening the interval between tours of duty in Vietnam and bringing more troops back from Europe.

An already tight manpower situation would become worse if President Johnson should order an increase in authorized troop levels for Vietnam beyond the currently planned 525,000 by mid-summer.

Johnson said last weekend he will boost the level "if we need to."

Pentagon officials said Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. commander in Vietnam, has not yet requested any over-all increase. But military sources expect that he will.

Last week Johnson approved

Explosion Hits Soviet Embassy

By JIM ADAMS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) - A pre-dawn blast, apparently caused by an explosive device placed on a window ledge, damaged the Soviet Embassy here today.

Police and Soviet officials said no one was injured by the 5:52 a.m. explosion that shattered windows in the embassy and nearby buildings and scattered debris across a wide area.

Police could not say immediately what type of explosive was used. It apparently was detonated on the concrete ledge of a first-story front window. The ledge was ripped away and an iron grating twisted.

By midmorning, there had been no arrests, officials said.

One Soviet source said, "We believe the bomb was thrown" - rather than placed on a window sill or otherwise attached to the building.

Investigation was hampered, according to Soviet informants, because no debris from the bomb apparently survived the blast. Informants also said that no message was left.

An FBI spokesman said although Washington police are handling the investigation, the bureau has offered the services of its laboratory and identification facilities and will investigate any leads developed outside of Washington. An FBI laboratory technician was sent to the scene at police request.

An Army lieutenant and a master sergeant, both wearing fatigues, entered the four-story stone and brick building several hours after the blast, but would not say whether they were demolition experts.

Police Capt. Francis Conley replied, "I don't know," when asked what type of explosive was used. "That's why our lab people are here collecting evidence," he said.

At midmorning, police permitted newsmen to inspect the window where the blast occurred. One newsmen said a heavy wooden desk which apparently had been near the window was damaged, but glass in bookcases against the white-painted wall was not shattered. The only other furniture in the room reporters could see was a large leather chair. The floor was covered with debris.

The embassy, at 1125 16th Street NW, just off Embassy Row, is housed in what once was one of Washington's fanciest town houses. It was built in 1910 for Mrs. George M. Pullman, the sleeping car heiress, but she never lived in it.

The Imperial Russian government used it for an embassy until the 1917 revolution when it was vacated until the United States recognized the Soviet government in 1932.

Criminal Code Revised

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) - Republican and Democratic leaders in the Kentucky House of Representatives joined Tuesday in sponsoring a bill to wipe out many obsolete sections of the state's criminal code.

It would, for example, repeal the ban against selling cigarettes, cigars and refreshments within 1½ miles of a camp meeting.

It also would erase:

- A law against appearing on a public highway in a bathing suit.

- A law against grazing cattle on the state Capitol grounds.

- A law against defrauding a livery stable operator.
